

Leprino Foods
2401 N. MacArthur Drive
Tracy, CA 95376

Job Description – Maintenance Mechanic

The job consists of, but not restricted to the following requirements/duties/responsibilities:

OVERVIEW:

The Maintenance Mechanic is required to maintain the production equipment of the facility. Perform mechanical duties such as repair/preventative maintenance to pumps, valves, conveyors, sprockets, gear boxes, welding and fabrication abilities.

Work with industrial electricity to troubleshoot and repair electrical components and machinery including all three phase, 480, 220 and other plant systems.

Complete preventive maintenance work orders.

Comply with Good Manufacturing Practices at all times, including good housekeeping

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Ability to perform basic mathematical functions.
- Ability to read and comprehend procedures and manuals.
- Ability to communicate well between production department, other maintenance technicians and department management.
- Ability to problem-solve and trouble shoot equipment.
- Ability to use sound independent judgment and decision making capability.
- Ability to work in high noise areas and extreme temperature changes.
- Must work safely with hazardous chemicals and wear personal protective equipment as required.
- Must be willing to support a 24/7 operation by being available to work weekends and holidays.
- The position requires standing, walking, climbing up steps/ladder, and lifting 70 pounds.

QUALIFICATIONS:

- High School Diploma or GED
- Completion of a preferred technical program is preferred.
- Minimum four years work experience with industrial maintenance, preferably in the food industry

Please go to our Leprino Foods website to review all career opportunities – <https://leprinofoods.com/careers>